GHMS DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

the students who loan them by noon tomorrow to be ready for the race. Please bring the tops to Mr. Luchies right after Advisory today.

Hallowe'en Monday, October 31st: Students and staff are encouraged to dress up!! Please remember that your costume must be respectful and masks are not allowed

Morioka Japan Visit: Morioka, Japan, has been a sister city with Victoria for a long time. For several years, we have had the honour to host a small delegation of middle school and junior secondary aged students and some staff from a school in Morioka. Sunday afternoon, a number of your families will meet the 15 students and their chaperones at GHMS to welcome them to our school and send them home to your families for their four day visit. The students will join several of our grade 7 and 8 classes. Mr. Khosla will share the names and classes with your teachers by Friday. We will have a small ceremony to welcome the visitors at school on Monday and will share an event schedule with you later this week ☺ Please learn how to say a few nice things in Japanese ☺

Have a great day!
