

Gordon Head Middle School
FRIDAY
December 22, 2017

We have about 10 students and our wonderful EA Dalmeet Sandhu who will be celebrating their birthdays over the holidays - have really fun birthdays all of you!

*****

Today is PJ day - enjoy a relaxing and fun day here with your friends for your last day of school before the two week break.

There will be no Dance Performance Group rehearsal after school today. Happy Holidays!

*****

Our grade 8 boys will be playing the grade 9 Lambrick Park boys in a basketball game today at Lambrick Park's gym. Bring your class if you wish and come out and cheer them on. The game starts at 10:45 and will be done before lunch. It was a lot of fun last year and rumour has it this year there will be some Lambrick swag given out to some lucky spectators!!

Teachers: please send a runner to the office to pick up a list of your class as soon as possible this morning. Please note on this list whether you are taking your class to Lambrick for the basketball game or not - what time you will be leaving if you are going.

All Grade 8 Boys Basketball players please meet in Mr. D's room at the start of the nutrition break to get your uniforms; then we will walk over to Lambrick together.

*****

Boys Grade 7 Volleyball today after school from 3 to 4:30.

And for today's joke from a really fun staff member:

Q: Why is it always cold at Christmas?

***** pause *****

A: Because it's in Decembrrrrrrr

Everybody please enjoy a really fun two weeks off school - stay safe! See you in the new year.
