

Gordon Head Middle School

Friday

March 10, 2023

- The gathering area will be open at lunch for grade 7s.
- Musical theatre will be happening at lunch.
- Lego club is happening today in the library.
- Next week, there will be a couple of leadership spirit days: Wednesday is “anything but your backpack day” and Friday is PJ day. Stay tuned to the announcements next week for more info.
- Badminton sign up is underway and the sheets are on the Athletics board in the gathering space. Please make sure you are on the list before Tuesday of next week if you are interested.
- Popcorn will be for sale at lunch in the hollow log. $2.50 per bag. Please ask your parents to place your order online as that will be the process to get popcorn after spring break.
- Grade 8 boys comp. players (and all teams that are finished) please wash and return your GHMS jersey to Mr. Owen ASAP.
- Grade 8 girls bring your jerseys to Mr. D’s room at nutrition break.
- Grade 7 girls comp. team has practice after school today.
- A HUGE congratulations to the grade 7 boys competitive volleyball team for winning the city championships last night. They played a tough match against PCS, where they came back with a 14 point streak to win the second set that put them into the finals where they beat a previously undefeated St. Pat’s team to win the city finals in straight sets. Amazing job!
