

Gordon Head Middle School
Wednesday
December 13, 2023

- The gathering space is open today at lunch for grade 7 students.
- “Be U” group meets today in blocks 6&7. Please go to the library if you’ve registered.
- There will be a grade 6 girls volleyball session at lunch today. Please bring your lunches right away.
- Grade 7 boys will meet after school today at 3pm. Be on time so you can help set up.
- Grade 8 girls, you will meet after school next Monday.
- Hot lunch tomorrow is sushi.
- Students, please check the lost and found bins for your hoodies, water bottles and other items. Items unclaimed by the end of Friday will be donated to charity.
- Our annual holiday bulletin board contest is up and running. Each division will decorate the bulletin board outside their room with a winter or holiday theme, keeping in mind so many different traditions that are celebrated this time of year. There will be hot chocolate for each class that wins in the following categories: People’s choice (which each student will get to vote for), and one for each grade group, as decided by our custodial and office staff. Have fun decorating and we look forward to the hallways coming alive!
- Next week we will have spirit days, kicking off Monday with festive sweater day.
- There will be an important meeting TOMORROW at lunch for ALL leadership students. We will be planning for Spirit Week next week, The Victorian visit, pancake breakfast prep and gift wrapping at Hillside. See you all tomorrow at lunch in the art room.
- Concert day is tomorrow. Please come early (7:30 onward) to help set up before school.
