- Grizzlies have Heart! Reminder to all teachers to please hand out the hearts in advisory to write thank you notes/appreciations to classmates or people in our school; we have challenged everyone to notice kindness in our school leading up to Pink Shirt Day. Leadership students will come at the end of the advisory today. Thanks Grizzlies!
- Remember that pink shirt day is tomorrow.
- Lego Club is today at lunch.
- Coding club meets tomorrow in Ms. Lamond's room from 3:00-4:00.
- Today is CC day, so dismissal is at 11:15. Grade 6s and 7s staying, please go to the library with all your items needed and grade 8s please meet in the home ec. room to do your work.
- In volleyball news:
- Congratulations to the boys grade 8 competitive team for a "low, loud and locked in" performance yesterday. Though they dropped their first set of the season, they remain undefeated overall.
- Congratulations also to our 7/8 rec. teams who played their last games last night. They all played with wonderful sportsmanship and a lot of skill.
- Girls 6/7 comp. team travels to Central after school today for their last league game before next week's playoffs. Go Grizzlies!
- Salina and Ella's grade 6/7 rec. volleyball team will be practicing Wednesday at noon.
- Mrs. Gibbs and Ms. Nelson's girls grade 8 comp. teams have practice after school today at 2:45.
- Mr. D. would like to meet with his team at nutrition break in his room to discuss rides to their game tomorrow.
- Badminton, rugby and field hockey meetings will be happening next week at lunch times. If you are interested in any of these sports, please make sure you pay attention to the announcements next week.
