October 28, 2025

- Lego Club is happening today in the library after the lunch eating period.
- Math Challengers is happening after school. Please wait in the Gathering Space for the student leaders to arrive.
- Attention Grade 8 Student-Athletes:

We have an exciting opportunity for a small group of grade 8 students involved in sports to attend a keynote presentation by James Kerr, author of Legacy, at St. Michaels University School (SMUS) on Friday, October 31st from 10:30–11:30 AM.

Kerr's talk explores the culture and leadership lessons behind the world-famous All Blacks rugby team, focusing on character, teamwork, humility, and legacy - ideas that connect powerfully to sport and life.

When: Leave school at 9:30 AM, return by noon.

Who: Grade 8 student-athletes (limited spots available).

If you're interested, please come to sign up in Mr. Owen's room today at nutrition break.

Selected students will be notified tomorrow.

- Grade 6/7 comp. girls basketball team has a game today at Cedar Hill. There is a quick meeting to discuss rides at lunch break in Mr. Owen's room.
- Practices today at lunch are for grade 8 comp. boys and 6/7 boys team #1. Our 6/7 rec. girls host their first season opener today. We could use two more scorekeepers if you are able and we also need scorekeepers for tomorrow from 3:00-5:00. Please see Mrs. Adamson if you can help.
- Congratulations to the grade 8 boys basketball team who played their hearts out last night! Your sportsmanship and teamwork were commendable. Practice is cancelled for today. Our next game is tomorrow at home.
