- Lego Club is happening in the library after the eating portion of lunch.
- 100m and 200m runners were supposed to have a practice today at lunch but your coach Hilary and Mrs. Adamson are away. Your practice will be tomorrow at lunch break instead. There will also be a practice for high jump and long jump on Wednesday.
- Boys 6/7 rugby players go to Lansdowne today after school. Please see Mr. Giesbrecht at the nutrition break in the office for your jersey and to pick up your warm up balls.
- Congratulations to our badminton comp. players who competed in yesterday's city finals at SMUS! Everyone played exceptionally well, with each athlete finishing in the top four in the city - an outstanding achievement. The teams of Miko and Evangeline and Alisa and Annie, both placed 4th. In singles competition, Eli and Jace finished 4th, while both Treasure and Tong each earned 3rd place finishes and Francis delivered a strong performance in a closely contested final. Well done to all of you. Mr. Owen and GHMS are extremely proud of your accomplishments and your dedication throughout the season.
