May 14, 2026

- Today is moose hide day. If anyone would like a piece of moose hide to wear please come to the office, there are many on the counter. This represents that you will make a promise to stop violence and prevent violence in the future.
- Rainbow fact of the Day: The world's largest Pride flag was displayed in Florida in 2003. It was just over 2 km long, weighed 3 tons and needed 2000 people to hold it up!
- Pokemon and Magic club is happening today in the home ec. room.
- Today's fun lunch is calzones.
- Today is transition day, where our future grade 6s are coming for the afternoon and our current grade 8s go off to their future high school for the afternoon. All Leadership students helping with this day, please meet in the gym at lunch break to help set up. If you are in grade 8 and not going to an SD61 school next year, please also come to the gym to help.
- Today is track meet #2. Those competing in 100m, grade 8 girls shot put and grade 6/7 girls high jump, please meet at nutrition break in the gathering space to get jerseys and sort out alternates.
- Congratulations to our girls rugby team who had some great games last night.
- Today is the last of the regular season rugby games for grade 8 boys at Lansdowne. Please also come to the gathering space at nutrition break to get your jerseys and sort out rides. Reminder to these grade 8 boys to go straight from your new high school to Lansdowne when you are dismissed.
- All field hockey girls, please return uniforms by the end of the day to be included in the draw prizes. Please drop the shirts off in Mr. Ross's room.
- Next week is our 3rd Annual Grade 7 Young Entrepreneurs Market! Come support our grade 7 students as they showcase their creativity, innovation, and business skills with a variety of handmade products. The market will run all day Tuesday, May 19th, and during the morning on Monday, May 25th. Prices range from $2 to $10, so students and teachers are encouraged to bring loonies, toonies, and small bills. Come support our young entrepreneurs and have some fun!
- Tomorrow is a pro-D day, so no school for students and Monday is Victoria Day so there is no school on Monday. See you Tuesday!
