

Gordon Head Middle School

Thursday

May 21, 2026

- Pokemon and Magic club is happening today in the home ec. room after the lunch eating time.
- Today's fun lunch is Subway.
- There is a dance practice before school tomorrow morning at 8:00AM for all CAST A dancers.
- This is the final call for field hockey uniform returns. If you still have a jersey, please return it to Mr. Ross as soon as possible.
- Track and field practice today is for relay with coach Hilary. She will meet all relay runners after the lunch eating time in the back field.
- Today our mural artist Jesse will be in the building. He has been busy getting our plan organized so was not here last week as planned. We are looking forward to seeing him today. Please remember to say hi to him and also to give space around the mural area.
- All library books are due back to the library by the end of day Friday.
- If you wrote the Gauss math contest this week, your score is available in the library; just ask Ms. Aerts or Ms. Sheyka.
- Easha, Anna, Blair, and Ayami, please see Mr. Ross at nutrition break today.
- Attention all grade 8 field hockey players: There will be a quick meeting at nutrition break today to pick up an important notice to take home. Please make sure you attend.
- Think about the one thing you wish you had bought at the Power Play Market... good news! the market returns Monday morning for one final sale. Don't be the person saying, "I should have bought that!" See you Monday for the last chance to shop.
- Congratulations to our girls rugby team on their season which ended yesterday at the jamboree. They did amazing and so many had their first tackles and tries. Today our grade 6 and 7 boys team is at SMUS and tomorrow our grade 8 boys are away for their jamboree. All grade 8 boys team players, meet Mr. Giesbrecht at nutrition break in the gathering space to discuss details about tomorrow.
