

Gordon Head Middle School

Friday

September 11, 2026

- Exploratories start today. Your teacher will have which animal group you are in. It would be great if you know your animal group name before you come to exploratory. At the start of your exploratory please come to the front basketball court to start.
- Line up doors will be the same on Monday. Please go to that same door and wait every morning for your teacher to come greet you. If you were in the gathering space. You will need to go outside and around the building to get to your line up door.
- Chess Club will be running at lunch after the eating portion, in the library. Come check out the fun!
- If you missed signing up for our broadcast leaders yesterday, we will have a meeting on Monday for those who missed out. Next week, our broadcast leaders are Sera, Natalie and Isla M.
